

Terry Lawless Performs Music Marathon Benefiting Relay for Life

Pink Panthers Relay for Life team welcomes Terry Lawless as Sweet T's One Man Caravan for an eight hour music marathon on June 2 from 12:30-8:30pm at Rancho Nipomo BBQ & Deli, 108 Cuyama Lane in Nipomo.

Terry says he will perform, "cool music on cool instruments" including keyboards, flutes, accordion and saxophones (his favorite is "Chloe") His huge repertoire will include vocal and instrumental classic rock, pop and soul, with plenty to please the whole family.

In addition to eight hours of music, the marathon event will include prizes, items for auction and a drawing for two top level tickets to any public U2 concert in the world (winner choice), including a personalized backstage tour led by Lawless himself.

U2's backstage has been nicknamed "Terryworld" by Bono. Terry is currently on the road with U2 as a part of its Songs of Experience tour. In addition to working with U2 since 2001, Terry has worked with P!Nk, Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, Cher, Chicago, the Backstreet Boys, Prince, Chicago, Foreigner, Stevie Nicks, Jackson Browne, Janet Jackson, David Bowie, and Don Henley, to name a few.

Terry and his family have lived here on the Central Coast for nearly 30 years.

All funds raised at Sweet T's One Man Marathon will benefit the Pink Panthers Relay for Life, as communities across the US raise funds for the American Cancer Society. Terry is a two time survivor and Terry's wife, Mindy (also a survivor) , is a member of the Pink Panthers and will walk in Santa Maria's 2018 Relay for Life on Saturday, June 23 at the Santa Maria FairPark.

To donate to the Pink Panthers Relay for Life team and to get tickets for the U2 drawing, see a local Pink Panther or visit www.terrylawless.com or Facebook.com/Terry-Lawless-Music-Page.